WHO AM I

I am a person with a refined aesthetic taste and particularly attentive to details. Before delivering any project, I dedicate a lot of time to revising it repeatedly to ensure it is impeccable. I have a strong inclination towards independence and determination, traits that have driven me to accumulate significant experiences abroad and develop considerable autonomy in my professional journey. Honesty and transparency are indispensable values for me, as I firmly believe they contribute to improving every aspect of both work and personal life.
